CONDUCT OF REMEDIAL CLASSES IN UNIVERSITY CAMPUS IN JANUARY 2018

The meeting of the committee for considering the matter regarding holding of remedial classes in January 2018 was held at Center for Academics on 27th December 2017 at 11.30 a.m. The committee deeply considered the gravity of the matter seeing the future and increased number of candidates who fell short of 60% attendance in classes in Academic Departments/ Institutes of Life Sciences B.S.B.T., Management, Legal Studies etc. and who were detained from appearing in December 2017 semester end university examination held in December 2017 due to shortage of attendance.

The committee in view of the largest number of students detained in December 2017 in Semester Examinations in department of Life Sciences and future of students recommends the following for holding of Remedial Classes of one month from January 02 to February 01, 2018 to provide an opportunity to the students of completing their minimum 60% attendance in July to December 2017 Semester and to allow these students to appear in Special Examinations to be held by the University after completion of Remedial Classes provided these students make up the shortage of attendance in Remedial Classes and complete the requirement of Minimum 60% attendance after allowing concessions etc. in July to December 2017 Semester:

1. The students having less than 60% attendance in their regular classes during July to December 2017 Semester classes in different courses conducted by Academic Departments / Institutes in the University Campus and who were detained from appearing in Semester end Examinations held in December 2017 will have to complete the requirement of minimum 60% attendance by attending Remedial Classes to be Organized by Academic Departments/ Institutes for one month from January 02 to February 01, 2018.
2. The students allowed for attending Remedial Classes will have to maintain regular attendance in each class and ensure marking of their attendance with the teacher concerned.
3. The students allowed for attending Remedial Classes will have to submit an affidavit of the fact that in future in next semesters they will maintain minimum 75% attendance in each class and will give no chance of being declared a student falling short of attendance.
4. The students will regularly attend the regular classes of 2nd, 4th and 6th Semesters (as applicable to them) being held in January to June 2018 semester and will maintain minimum 75% attendance in each class besides attending the Remedial Classes of earlier July to December 2017 Semester in which they were having short attendance but these students will be allowed to appear in Examinations of 2nd, 4th and 6th Semesters to be held in May 2018 only when they are declared pass or promoted in Semester 1st, 3rd or 5th Semester Examination as applicable to them to be held after completion of remedial classes.
5. The Semester end Examinations for Semester 1st, 3rd and 5th after completion of Remedial Classes will be completed with in a week without any gap from 3rd February, 2018.
6. The Examination Fee for holding examinations before commencement of Remedial Classes will have to be paid by concerned students and this examination fees shall be twice of examinations fees of concerned semester end examinations held in December 2017 by the University.
7. The concerned Director/ H.O.D will arrange for holding Remedial Classes in their Institutes / Departments besides conducting of regular Classes for January to June 2018 for 2nd, 4th and 6th Semesters and instruct the teachers concerned to engage Remedial Classes and mark the attendance of students.
